Counselor/CIT Code of Conduct and ExpectationsDevoted, Hard-Working Candidates

While there are exciting adventures, individual benefits and monetary compensation, being on the staff at LifeSeeds means high energy, hard-work and great dedication. We expect that this job will be challenging and at times exhausting, but an underlying commitment to the campers from every staff member is essential.

Compassionate Role Models

At LifeSeeds, we encourage respect, hard work and selflessness from our campers. As a staff member at LifeSeeds, we expect you to be selfless and giving, keeping the needs of the campers' as a top priority and leading by EXAMPLE.

Strong Moral Character

Each of our staff members is held to the highest standard. We hire only loyal, respectful individuals who conduct themselves with positive morals and values. Inappropriate language, alcohol and drugs are unacceptable during your employment at LifeSeeds.

As a member of the LifeSeeds staff, your mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of our campers. Our staff is comprised of young men and women of courage, honesty, integrity and honor whose summer goal is to instill positive values in those around them.

What You Can Expect

- To have fun making lifelong friends
- To enjoy the outdoors (yes, you will get dirty and sweat a little)
- To be crazy enough to do some things you might not be comfortable doing
- To laugh a lot- even at yourself
- To learn from your campers and peers
- To be surprised at what you are capable of doing
- To be a celebrity...in the eyes of the campers
- To be physically, emotionally, and mentally exhausted
- To be sad when it ends
- Cell phones are not allowed during the camp day by counselors or campers

I have read, understand, and agree to the LifeSeeds Counselor/CIT Code of Conduct.
